PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Practical information

Yes, it focuses on the cultural north: Tangier, Chefchaouen and Fes, with the ruins of Volubilis, ideal if you have only a few days or are combining it with Spain.

How much time do we spend in Chefchaouen, the blue city?

There is time to stroll its blue streets, photograph its corners and, if you wish, climb up to the Spanish Mosque at sunset.

Is the medina of Fes visited with a guide on this short route?

Yes, we spend a day in Fes el-Bali with a local guide to see the tanneries, madrasas and Al-Qarawiyyin University.

Is it a good add-on after a trip through southern Spain?

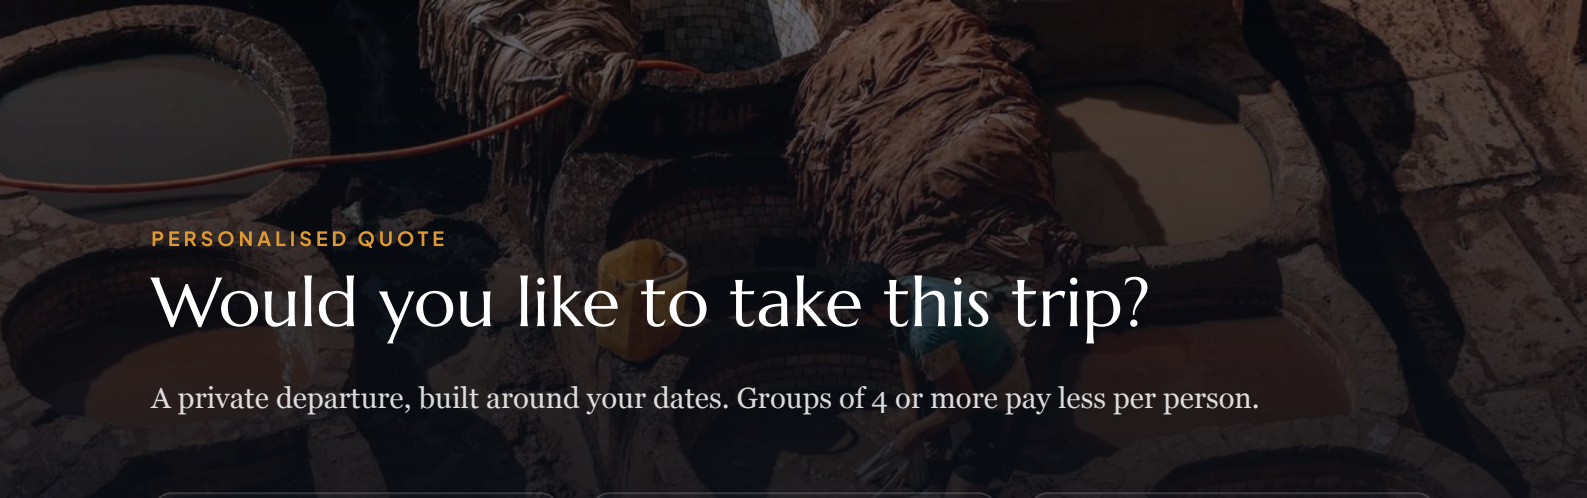

Perfect: you can cross by ferry from Tarifa or Algeciras to Tangier and do this northern route in a few days before heading back.

How much walking is involved in visiting these medinas?

There is a fair amount of walking on cobbled, uneven streets, especially in Fes and Chefchaouen. With comfortable shoes it suits most travellers.
